Vange Place

Edition #10

Keeping it cool this summer

What a delightful summer it's been at Vange Place! We made the most of the splendid weather. Tom and Laura took a leisurely evening walk in the warm sunshine. Linda and Emma headed to Sturmer for a scrumptious pub lunch. There, Emma dared Grace to a challenge - who could eat a slice of lime without making a funny face? Emma emerged as the winner.

At Vange Place, we cherish our get-togethers and group lunches. The laughter never seems to end. We have a wonderful time together, reminiscing about the many shared memories. Trips to McDonald's, coffee, and cake are always a hit! It's fair to say we're friends for life!

Holiday shopping

Linda and Emma were getting ready for their holidays so they decided to do some shopping for clothes – hats, dresses, shoes, bags, you name it! They were really getting into the holiday mood. It seemed like Matalan had almost nothing left on the hangers! We hope you both had a fantastic time on your trip.

New chef in town

We've welcomed a fresh addition to the culinary team at Vange Place. Molly our newest chef at Vange Place, prepared a Sunday lunch for herself and Linda. But that's not all Molly accomplished – she also baked a truly delightful Victoria Sponge cake, which everyone enjoyed with a cup of tea in the evening.

Meanwhile Tom treated his housemates to a delightful vegetarian curry. Linda, Emma, and Tom savoured this dish alongside some naan bread and mango chutney, and the vegetables were a big hit.

Linda's holiday

In August, Linda had a splendid holiday in Hopton-on-Sea. She was thoroughly delighted with her hotel room for the week and the entire resort. Throughout her vacation, Linda had access to evening entertainment, daily activities, and amazing food and drinks. Her time there was truly fantastic, and she's eagerly looking forward to returning.

Shop until you drop

Sarah and Emma are all set for an October vacation! They're embarking on a Mediterranean cruise to explore various breath-taking destinations. Naturally, the two Sarah's couldn't resist the urge to buy some new clothes for the occasion. So, they made a trip to Cambridge, and, as is customary on a girly shopping outing, enjoyed a scrumptious lunch. We're all wishing both Sarah and Emma an incredible time and the creation of cherished memories during your journey.

Theatre trips

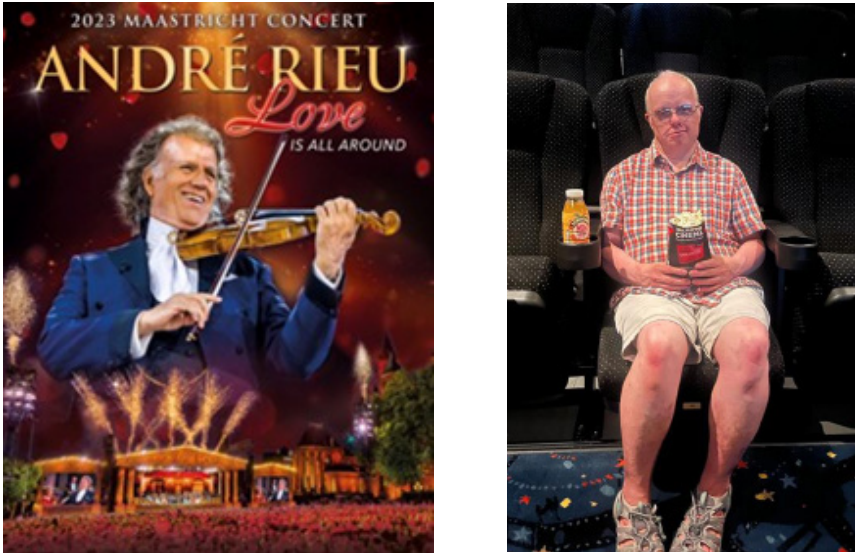

The folks at Vange Place extended an invitation to their friends Molly, Matt, and Sarah for an outing to the Theatre Royal in Bury St. Edmunds. In this enchanting production, an unusual and unexplained cyclone whisks Dorothy and her faithful dog Toto away to the unusual land of Oz. It turned out to be a delightful evening, with everyone thoroughly enjoying the performance.

On another occasion, the group returned to the Theatre Royal in Bury St. Edmunds to catch "Last Night of the Proms," a truly spectacular show. The atmosphere was electric, with applause, cheers, waving flags, and a hearty sing-along to some beloved British classics. God Save the King!

Andre Rieu comes to Haverhill

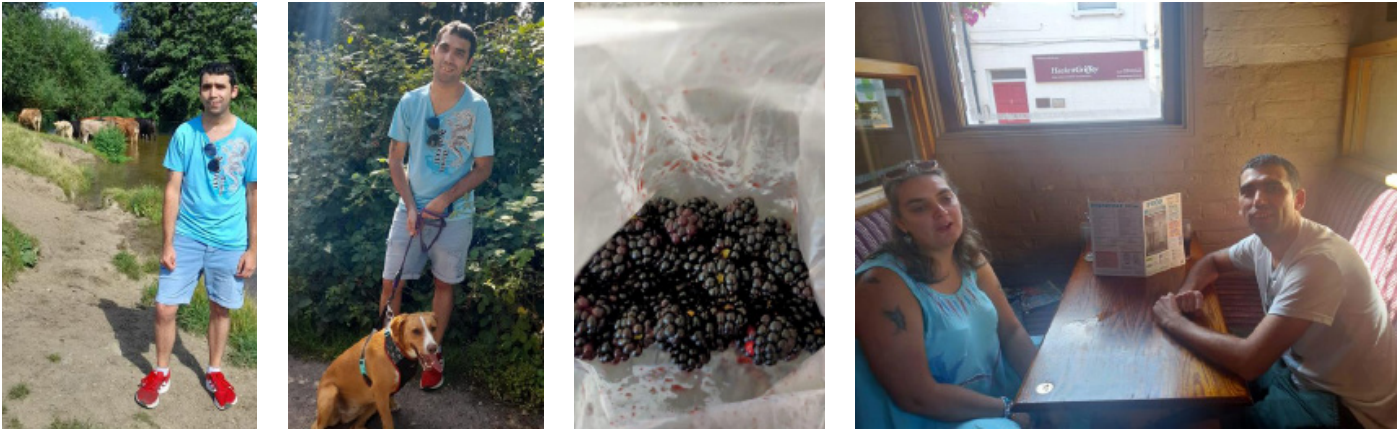

Sarah accompanied Tom to an Andre Rieu concert at Cineworld, where Tom immersed himself in the music. He conducted the orchestra throughout the entire performance, enjoying popcorn, raising his drink in cheers to the screen, and singing along with a little light they brought with them. At the end, he even got up and took a bow!

Matt and Sarah

Matt and Sarah had quite the summer filled with exciting adventures with their furry friends Mavis, Bettie and Amber! They ventured out to Sudbury's breathtaking water meadows, where Matt collected some gorgeous blackberries. While there, they shared the meadows with a friendly herd of cows who seemed eager to join in the fun.

As September rolled around, they continued their outings with lovely walks, enjoying sunny pub lunches. They definitely earned a pint at the pub. We always enjoy following their adventures during their support, and we eagerly anticipate many more to come!

Continental breakfasts

Trina assisted the group in preparing a Continental breakfast, featuring a variety of items like fresh fruit, yogurt, croissants, and orange juice. This spread introduced everyone to some new and delightful foods, which have now become a cherished favourite among all our customers at Vange Place.

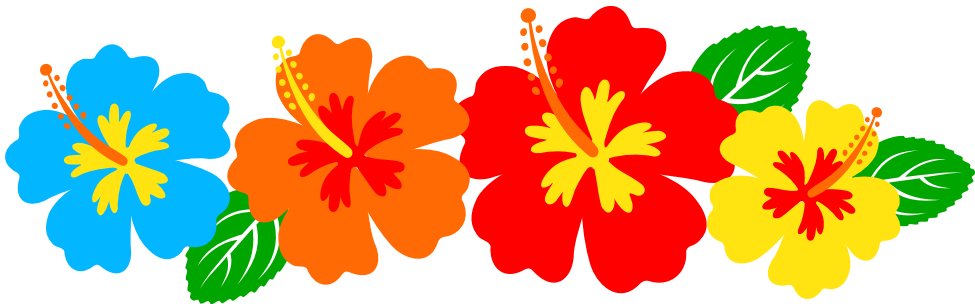

Beach days at Clacton

We, at Vange Place, enjoyed our August bank holiday at the seaside! We had fun at the arcades, where Grace and Matt had an impromptu dance-off, and we wrapped up the day with a visit to the ice cream parlour – the definite highlight! It was a fantastic day, filled with wonderful memories.

Hawaiian BBQ 2023

To end our summer with a bang, we organised a grand Hawaiian BBQ Bash! We had iconic Hawaiian cocktails, grass skirts, flower garlands, limbo competitions, and a truly magnificent buffet. The entire crowd was on their feet, dancing, forming conga lines in the garden, and creating unforgettable memories together. It seemed like everyone had a grass skirt and a cocktail or mocktail in hand. We'd like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all who joined our Hawaiian Party, and we're looking forward to the possibility of Summer 2024 being just as exceptional.
