10 Pin Bowling - Cambridge

We had a fun Saturday night Tenpin bowling in Cambridge.

Oh Mamma Mia, we had a great feast at Bella Italia then bowled our hearts out to end the evening! There were some great scores and it was really close at the end, Laura was the winner.

Saturdays are for shopping!

One Saturday we had a lovely shopping trip out so Tom could pick up his new glasses from the opticians. We think he looks very smart. We stopped off for a Mid-Morning snack and drink at Costa! Never one to miss out on a Latte, Linda joined us too.

Linda wanted to go shopping in Bury St Edmund's so she could visit the Pandora shop. Whilst there she bought a new lovely new ring. Here's Linda proudly showing her new ring whilst having (another!) Latte with lunch at Frankie and Benny's.

A trip to the Ballet

On 14 February, Emma and Tom went to see the great modern ballet classic of Romeo and Juliet at the Haverhill Arts Centre. It was a very moving performance and they thoroughly enjoyed it.

Enjoying the better weather

As the warmer weather comes, we've been getting out and about more – taking the opportunity to exercise and enjoy the fresh air.

Here is Sarah walking Marley across the fields on one of our very first sunny days this year.

Matthew and Marley decided to take the more sensible route to avoid the mud!

Mid walk pit-stop!

Pancake Day

Pancake day caused much excitement at Vange Place. Here is Emma, being supported by Trina to rustle up some pancakes. With a variety of toppings on offer, they were devoured by all!

Linda's new wheelchair

In February Linda's new indoor and outdoor wheelchairs were delivered, allowing for so much more independence! Linda can now move freely around Vange and also while out and about.
