The perfect holiday wardrobe

Sarah wanted to freshen up her holiday wardrobe and so she hit the shops in search of some new outfits for her upcoming break to Benidorm. She had a good look around the stores and eventually found a gorgeous jumpsuit and 2-piece outfit, perfect for kicking back on sunny days and looking great on warm nights out in Spain. Once the wardrobe was sorted, Sarah picked up some essentials and started packing for her getaway.

Matt's Cyprus holiday

Matt decided to escape to Cyprus for a week-long holiday to explore its golden beaches, crystal-clear waters and ancient wonders, and he was not disappointed with his chosen destination. He had the best time lounging and swimming, tasting new dishes in traditional tavernas and walking the island's many cobbled streets.

It's safe to say that Matt loved every minute of his getaway, which also included a scenic boat trip along the coastline and open-top bus tour which helped him see and experience everything Cyprus has to offer its guests.

Sarah's Benidorm holiday

When the time came for Sarah to book a holiday, she chose Benidorm, and you can trust us when we say she was delighted she did! Sarah made the most of her time in the Spanish sunshine by taking trips to the beach, shopping the local stores and lounging by the swimming pool at her hotel.

One of her favourite adventures included relaxing on a ship which had a glass bottom, enabling her to see the beautiful sea life. Sarah enjoyed her getaway so much, she is planning on flying out to Benidorm again as soon as possible.

Emma and Linda's Great Yarmouth holiday

Emma and Linda had the perfect break away from everyday life when they recently stayed at Wild Duck Holiday Park in Great Yarmouth. So many wonderful memories were made, from playing bingo and having fun at the arcades to dining out, watching brilliant entertainment and dancing each night away.

They squeezed a lot into their waterfront escape, including a trip to the Sealife Centre where they got closer than ever before to amazing marine life and some fascinating creatures. Not forgetting their time exploring a wide range of great shops and treating themselves to several coastal souvenirs and keepsakes.

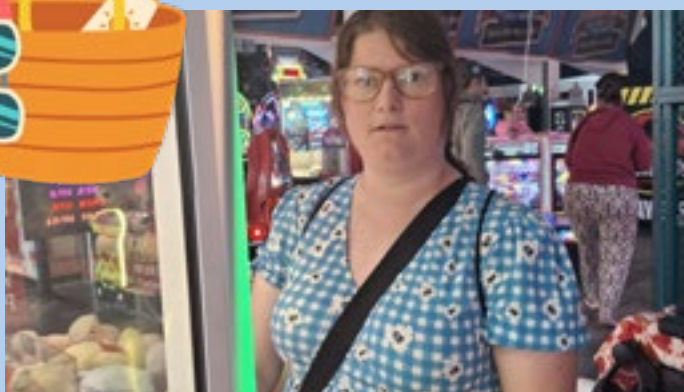

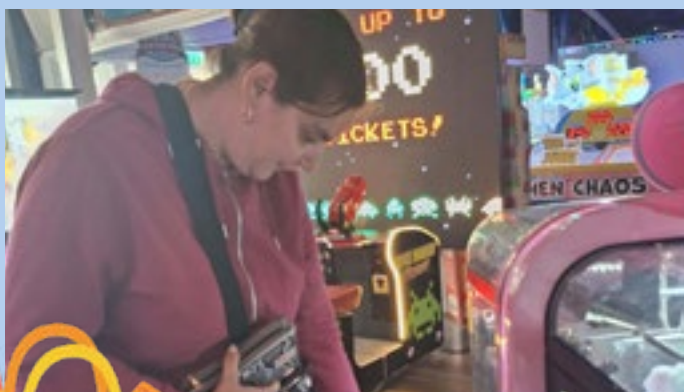

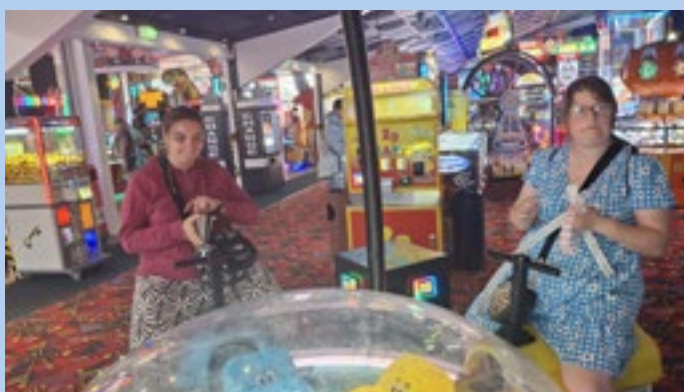

A day out in Clacton-on-Sea

Oh! We do like to be beside the seaside! We do like to be beside the sea! Which is why we all got together and went to Clacton for some classic seaside fun. The weather was on our side, meaning we were able to enjoy going on all the thrilling fairground rides and take a lovely stroll along one of the UK's oldest piers.

We, of course, couldn't leave without trying our luck in the arcades and satisfying our tastebuds with something delicious from one of the eateries lining the promenade. It was the perfect day out, and we can't wait to start planning our next trip to the beach.
