Tree Planting

Papworth Trust kicked off a fortnight of celebrations in aid of the King's Coronation.

It began with the planting of a special tree, a monarch birch, in the village of Papworth Everard in front of Papworth Hall. The Varrier-Jones Foundation joined trustees and staff as our Chair, Brian Stewart, said a few words before officially planting it.

Customers at our Opportunities Without Limits centre in Basildon celebrated HRH His Majesty King Charles III Coronation on Wednesday 3 May by throwing a party. It was a wonderful afternoon which included a quiz, a game of Boccia and lots of delicious cakes. The party began with everyone singing the national anthem and ended with staff and customers dancing along to their favourite music. It was a brilliant afternoon and a great way to kick off the celebrations!

On Thursday 4 May customers from Opportunities Without Limits in Ipswich celebrated the Coronation of HRH His Majesty King Charles III. Celebrations at the centre started with refreshments. After a buffet of food, customers enjoyed music and dancing. Our Volunteer Receptionist, Harriet Sunderland, held a thank you speech to all attendees which was followed by a round of applause. Harriet then read aloud a letter the Trust received from its Patron, HRH The Duchess of Gloucester. The afternoon ended with a raffle and refreshments of cream scones and cakes. Customers loved celebrating the Coronation at the Ipswich centre.

Papworth Everard Family Fun Day

Staff attended the Papworth Everard family fun day on Sunday 7 May. Paul Sands, our Volunteer Manager said:

"It was a fantastic event with great weather. It was great to see so many local residents and thank you to everyone who popped by to say hello."

Vange Place

The families and customers of Vange Place celebrated the Coronation of HRH His Majesty King Charles III. It was filled with laughter, fun and games. Everyone enjoyed a buffet followed by a quiz. The winner of the quiz was Tom and everyone celebrated his success afterwards!

On Friday 12 May, our Lowestoft care customers held a lunch time party for their families. The party was brilliant, there was delicious food, arts and crafts and a disco held in the Whittons Residents Hall. It was a great opportunity for staff, customers and their families to get together to celebrate the coronation.

Customers at our Opportunities Without Limits centre in Abington celebrated their coronation event on Wednesday 10 May. The beautiful weather meant staff, customers and their families could enjoy a game of cricket in the sunshine. After the game had finished everyone enjoyed cakes, scones and tea. It was a lovely event which everyone

Customers at our Opportunities Without Limits centre in Huntingdon celebrated HRH His Majesty King Charles III Coronation on Wednesday 10 May with an afternoon tea and coronation bingo. Customers enjoyed scones and a fantastic coronation cake made by our new Activities Facilitator, Tom. Afterwards, Cliff led a lively bingo session. On the first game, Daniel won the first line but was pipped to the post for a full house which was won by James. More games followed and enjoyed by all.

At our Opportunities Without Limits centre in Cambridge, customers enjoyed a delightful afternoon tea featuring scones and sandwiches. They had the pleasure of re-watching the coronation ceremony of HRH His Majesty King Charles III, all while wearing the crowns they had made for the occasion. To conclude the festivities, everyone participated in a fun-filled Coronation quiz in the afternoon!
