Papworth Trust is an Equal Opportunities Employer

Do you have what it takes to be a Bank Support Worker for a care service rated 'Outstanding'?

Join our growing team and remove barriers for people with learning disabilities and autism. We provide training to support you to achieve the highest level of care support. So if you're caring, resilient and passionate our training and extensive induction will give you the practical skills to help you on your way.

We are looking for individuals who can reflect Papworth Trust's values – being fair, being responsible for what we do, working together, being honest, respecting you and putting our customers at the heart of everything we do. Below are our essential requirements:

- Social care experience is not a requirement. The role can be challenging so successful applicants will not be fazed by this and can work calmly, efficiently and accurately even when under pressure
- Form/maintain excellent relationships with colleagues, customers, their family and other professionals
- Ability to work alone and take responsibility for your practice.
- Confident in making decisions using own initiative and supporting customers to make choices
- Experience of supporting people (professionally or personally i.e. children, family etc.)
- To be over the age of 18
