Papworth Trust is an Equal Opportunities Employer

We are looking for passionate Support Workers...

To work in an environment that provides challenges with the opportunity to progress. Join our team in ensuring that people we support have a full and happy life. We support adults with learning disabilities and autism with everyday skills such as administering medication, cooking, personal care, social activities and helping them to look after their homes.

Previous experience in social care is desirable due to supporting individuals with behaviours that can challenge. Full training and extensive induction will be provided, but it is essential that you are caring, enthusiastic and engaging. Must have the ability to be flexible.

If you are experienced in care or considering a career in care, can demonstrate you are caring, resilient and passionate, this could be your ideal job and we want to hear from you
