

Kindness Man – by Franky aged 7

Kindness Man is on an adventure to get the Kindness crystal to power up so he can defeat scary spider. Kindness Man's first act of kindness is saving a man that was stuck up a mountain by flying him back to the ground. The man said thank you and Kindness Man's crystal glowed. Kindness Man's next act of kindness is to save a cat from a tall house. The cats name is Gerald. Kindness Man's crystal glowed! Kindness Man heard a scream and he saw a woman stuck in sticky spider's web and he saw sticky spiders too! Kindness Man's crystal glowed so so brightly and so Kindness Man saved her with his rainbow beam. The woman said thank you for saving me with your magic! And Kindness Man flew into the sky towards the sunshine to get back to his rainbow home! What a fun day.
